

IEMQG General Meeting
June 3, 2017
Grand Terrace Community Room, Grand Terrace, CA

The meeting was called to order at 2:00 by President Laura Greene. Laura conducted the “five question game” and Evie Reinstra won the prize. Donna Gaston briefly outlined the Block Lotto due next month. Cindy Chrisler reported that the Joann’s at Ontario Mills is looking for a quilting and sewing teacher. Cindy also announced that Citrus Belt Quilters still has room in the workshop by Allyson Allen for more participants. Rachel McGee said that 11 charity quilts from IEMQG were donated to the Disabled Veterans at their open house in Highland. Pat Klassen requested sign-ups for refreshments for upcoming meetings. In celebration of the guild’s first anniversary, Laura read a brief history of how the guild came into being. Today’s meeting was attended by 27 members and 13 guests.

The refreshment break featured a birthday cake for the guild.

The featured speaker, Latifah Saafir, began her presentation at 2:30. After a media presentation and trunk show, Latifah took questions and donated three patterns and a template for door prizes.

A bundle of fat quarters was won by Evie Reinstra. The patterns and template were won by Chlesea Olsen, Rachel rogers, Sandy Rosner, and Cathy Taylor.

The next meeting will be held on July 1. Members should bring quilts for show and share, Word challenge entries, and BOMs.

Meeting adjourned at 4:30 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Cindy Chrisler
