4 STEPS TO A BEAUTIFUL TEMPERATURE QUILT

By Patti Reyes, VP Communications

WHAT IS A TEMPERATURE QUILT?

A quilt that uses a typically 2 -color block for each day of the year to represent the high and low daly temperature of a chosen location.

Knitters, crocheters and needleworkers also make temperature pieces.
This quilt was made by Elizabeth Eastmond using flying geese. Her border was added atter she had completed all her blocks

REASONS TO CONSIDER MAKING A TEMPERATURE QULIT

Great way to enter the world of quilt design and make a unique quilt.

Join a sew along and make new quilty friends.
Great way to use Stash.
Great project to share with kids.

Linda Hungerford, MQG member from Central Florida Quater circles arranged veticilly

JOIN A SEW ALONG

MOG member Rebecca Cartwright (@rebcartwright) made this quilt in an Instagram sew along.
She used half-hexies with a scrappy low volume background.
Dark gray delineates months.

STEP 2: MAKE A COLOR

 CHARTFirst: What is your areas Temperature Range

\text { (me - } 25 \text { deg. F to } 125 \text { deg F) }

Second: pick one color for every 3 to 5 degrees

\text { (I need } 20 \text { to } 30 \text { colors) }

Consider alternatives:

- Maybe only show Daily Average or Daily High.

Elizoeth's color Chart - 23 colors

- Omit colors you don't like.

BE CREATIVE

- Eva Maria Evans @bijouxbaby, Central Iowa MQG, used a grayscale palette.
- Or use the basic rainbow with 3 shades of each color.
- Or use low volume fabrics for the low temps.
- Or use a 2-color palette with a range of shades in each color

4. PICK A LAYOUI

1. Serpentine - down, up, down
2. Right to left
3. Diagoonal Serpentine
4. Spiral out from the middle abargetz Finally finished my #temperaturequilt for 2020. Came up with my own pattern, a block with low volumes for the lows and some Tula Pink for the highs. Jan 1st is in the middle and It spirals out. I like the balance it gets from that.

SARA SCHREINER, COLORADO

Modern Wedge Quilt
One wedge for each month.
Lows on one side and highs on the other.

PATRICIA BUSSEMEIER, GERMANY

Houses arranged horizontally with trees to separate months.
Lows are roof tops and highs are the lower structure.
Windows added for special days.

ADDITIONAL TIPS
Stay Organized

1. Write the date on the back of each block.
2. Place each month's blocks in a labeled Ziplock bag
3. Use fabrics that can easily be re-purchased or substituted.
4. Keep track of fabric name/order # for reordering (see Elizabeth's color chart)

4 STEPS TO A BEAUTIFUL TEMPERATURE QUILT

1. Find an online weather source with a temperature gage near you.
2. Make a color chart using easily accessible colors that you like.
3. Pick a 2 -piece block 3 to 4 inches in size.
4. Decide on a layout that displays your blocks well

Remember: The only rules are the ones made by you.
